

POST-CONFERENCE AGENDA (DRAFT)

8-9:00am Full Breakfast and Informal Networking

9-9:45am Morning opening keynote on community engagement (large group):

- President Chris Caldwell (College of Menominee Nation)
- President Barry Dunn (South Dakota State University)

10-11:15am Morning breakout sessions on research:

- Rick Williams and Michael Roberts (First Nations Development Institute)
 - Paying Old Debts: Interviews with leaders of Tribal Colleges in service to building partnerships among sister land-grant institutions
- Katie Hartmann (Iowa State University)
 - Promising Practices: Cooperative Extension in Indigenous Communities
- Nicole Adams (Purdue University)
 - Recovery Oriented Systems of Care: The Turtle Mountain Exemplar

11:30am-12:30pm Lunchtime keynote on education (large group):

- Report out from morning Breakout Session Facilitators
- Panel Discussion: AIHEC Native American Student Success Initiative
 - Lead Panelist: Erica Moore (AIHEC)

1:00-2:15pm Afternoon breakout sessions on community engagement:

- Kolia Souza (Michigan State University)
 - Food Systems Equity: Expanding Partnerships Across and Beyond the Land Grant University System
- Brian Kowalkowski (College of Menominee Nation)
 - USDA-NIFA Tribal Extension Work
- Amber Marlow (Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe College)
 - Land Grant Collaborations – a 1994 Perspective

2:30-3:45pm Closing Panel on Next Steps (large group)

- Report out from afternoon Breakout Session Facilitators
- Panel Discussion: New Funding Initiative from NCRCRD
 - Michael Wilcox (North Central Regional Center for Rural Development)
 - Maria Marshall (North Central Regional Center for Rural Development)
 - Steve Yoder (Purdue University Extension)